

Community-Led

Panel: Tackling the Challenge of Gaining Institution-wide Buy-in and Adoption of Formative Feedback using Bluepulse

July 11, 2018

Facilitator: Yeona Jang, EVP-Community, Product Expertise, Governance | eXplorance

Panelists

Community-Led

Peter A Baccile
Executive Director
Online Learning, Educational and Media Technology Services,
Washtenaw Community College

Dr. Jim Houpis
Dean of Academic Support and Learning Technologies,
Skyline College

Dr. Cherie Werhun
Associate Dean
Teaching and Learning,
Sheridan College

Community-Led

Question 1:

Focus of formative feedback. When you are focusing on formative feedback in your institution, who are the actors in this formative feedback practice, why and to achieve what?

Community-Led

Question 2:

What are key driving forces, internal and/or external, for implementing formative feedback with Bluepulse in your institution?

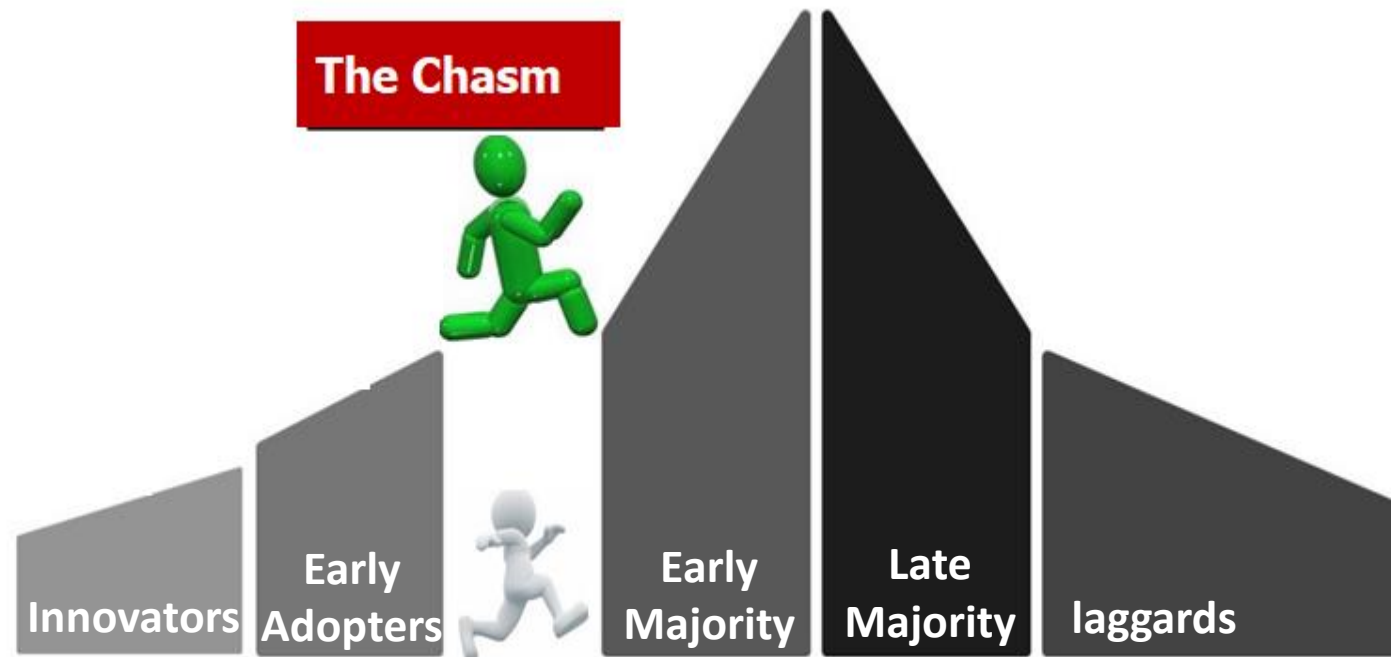

Question 3:

Crossing the infamous chasm during the institution-wide adoption of Bluepulse:

- What are the key obstacles and how do you overcome them?
- How are you using the strengths of your institutions to help cross the chasm?

Technology Adoption Model

Question 4:

How are you engaging instructors during the institution-wide adoption of Bluepulse?

Technology Adoption Model

Community-Led

Question 5:

What are the closing thoughts you would like to share with institutions that are considering implementing Bluepulse?

Community-Led

Panel: Tackling the Challenge of Gaining Institution-wide Buy-in and Adoption of Formative Feedback using Bluepulse

Q&A

Community-Led

Thank you.

See you at the next learning webinars
and the Bluenotes Global 2018 Conference!

